

This isn't your average internship. M3's Business Insurance Internship Program has the capacity to launch your long-term career in insurance. With an emphasis on career exploration, our program offers flexibility to align educational opportunities and projects with your interests and skills while building relationships with other interns, professionals, and leaders.

Your Summer At a Glance

25% Industry Education & Career Development

- Access to insurance classes
- Gain professional skills
- Participate in group coaching
- Grow through mentorship

25% Business Projects

- Projects from all areas of M3
- Deep involvement in service & sales work
- Exposure to the work of HR, finance, marketing, and c-suite professionals
- Contribute to M3 operational strategy

50% Real Work Experience

- Work closely along-side M3ers
- Support service & sales
- Contribute to product line initiatives and risk management projects
- Exposure to client-facing work

What You Gain

Money!
(It's a paid internship)

Field Experience in Sales & Service

Key Industry Relationships

Personal & Professional Development

Make an Impact on Your Community

Build Your Personal Brand

Gavel Club

Through the Gavel Club interns regularly present what they learn to an M3 audience. M3 professionals provide real-time feedback to advance your communication skills & professional presence.

"[Gavel Club] has helped me gain confidence in my speaking abilities, whether it be one-on-one or in a group setting of 20+ people."

- Lizbeth Huertas,
Business Insurance Intern,
2021

Scan to watch a video about M3's Internship Program

