Business Development Consultant

Liz Flint is an assistant vice president and business development consultant with MFS Investment Management® (MFS®). In this role, she helps financial advisors and other intermediaries grow their practices by sharing thought leadership and practice management content and serving as a subject matter expert on financial issues impacting advisors and their clients.

Liz has spent her entire career at MFS, having joined the firm in 2001. From 2001 to 2007, she held several roles within MFS' United States retail distribution team. In 2007 she was named sales manager and later head of the firm's Phoenix sales desk, where she led a team of more than a dozen internal wholesalers supporting the western United States. She was named to her current role in 2022. Liz has mentored many sales associates entering the asset management industry. She has been a featured speaker in MFS' ongoing efforts to educate advisors about the unique and evolving financial needs of women.

Liz earned a business management degree from Arizona State University in 2001. She holds the Series 6, 7, 24, 26, 51 and 63 licenses from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.
